Table 7 provides the anticipated budget for the BSI, SE, and SSSP Integrated Plan and is aligned with the overall goals and activities of the plan. The BSI budget will continue to fund tutorial, supplemental instruction, special programs such as study programs and remedial boot camps, and professional development for faculty, staff, and administrators for continuous improvement. The budget is aligned to provide integral services that will help students achieve their educational goals. Aligning with the new Guided Pathways framework, the BSI budget will continue to offer intrusive tutorial and supplemental instruction to ensure the success of students who are placed in remedial math and/or English.

The SE budget is aligned with the goals of the Integrated Plan by ensuring that funding is available for staffing, professional development for staff, faculty, and administrators, and special activities, such as debates, film screenings, faculty lectures, and campus-life activities. Through SE Funding, WHCC will continue to strive to create a culture of equity and success for all students. The new implementation of the Guided Pathways framework will not only ensure that WHCC continues to create open access for all students but will also implement intrusive services to promote completion of certificates and degrees.

SSSP funding will be designated to fund activities that are crucial to the success of students. Through SSSP funding, WHCC will ensure that counselors and advisors create a formal process of multiple measures placement to eliminate the process of assessment for incoming students. Funding will also be used to expand matriculation services to our adult learners, prison population, and dual-enrollment students to ensure that students have a roadmap to completion. The college will reduce equity gaps in some of our disproportionate groups by funding activities that promote the “15-to-Finish” model created by Complete College America (CCA). SSSP funding will also be used to implement the Guided Pathways framework to ensure that students persist from one semester to the next and have a clear path to completion and employment.

Future and Ongoing Initiatives Supporting the Integrated Plan

Professional Development: WHCC recently added a professional development committee to the shared governance structure. The goal of the committee is to discuss professional development needs and ensure that staff, faculty, and administrators have the training required to promote student success and equity. One of the goals of the committee is to promote an equity-minded campus where stakeholders focus on cultural relevance, equity issues, and social justice.

Guided Pathways: The Guided Pathways framework was recently introduced to the California Community College system as a model that promotes student success. WHCC is currently working with all campus stakeholders to develop a self-assessment of where the campus currently stands on the Guided Pathways initiative and will be working closely with all stakeholders to change the campus culture to promote the framework for the entire campus. Even though the campus is at the beginning stages of implementation, it has started working on many of the elements that are required to implement the model. The new framework allows college campuses to promote student equity through changes to our entire college culture that not only promote access but also promote completion. Initiatives such as 15-to-Finish and the College Promise will be part of the framework of change that will create a culture of access and completion at WHCC.

Open Educational Resources: WHCC recently applied and was awarded a Zero-Textbook Cost Degree (Z-Degree) grant that will allow WHCC faculty and staff to develop open educational resources (OER) that will help students with textbook costs. Following our district policy BP-4042, stating that by 2020, 100% of our courses will use OER instead of traditional textbooks, our campus will develop OER materials and texts for Kinesiology and for a certificate of completion in Agricultural Science. The grant will help faculty and staff continue with the mission to reduce and/or eliminate the cost of textbooks for WHCC students.

Summary

The BASE Committee has worked with members from all constituent groups on campus to develop the Integrated Plan presented above. The goals and activities of our 2017-2019 Integrated Plan align with WHCC's mission, campus goals, and the West Hills Community College District's key performance indicators. The integrated plan is focused on providing equitable access to students, closing achievement gaps for disproportionately impacted populations, and creating opportunities for students to complete their educational goals. As the plan begins implementation in February 2018, the BASE Committee will monitor and report on the progress of the goals to the WHCC College Council.
